Step It Up!

Pass it on! Now that you know how, share it with others. Here are ideas to get you started.

Communication
- Read books or stories you have written to younger children
- Create a puppet show to teach children street smart safety tips
- Visit with Clover Kids members about their county fair projects

Citizenship
- Collect puzzles, games, and toys for a local child care center
- Create and deliver a coupon booklet with things you will do with a child
- Assess the safety of a community playground and work for change
- Organize a toy drive and donate items to children in the community
- Study a public building to evaluate accessibility for persons with disabilities

Leadership
- Volunteer in your community to help with 4-H educational Clover Kids activities
- Create a family job chart

Take Child Development further!

Here are other opportunities to explore Child Development

- Contact your County Extension office to participate in local child development project workshops and babysitting camps.
- Showcase child development exhibits at county, regional, and/or state fairs.
- Enroll in first aid training for children and babysitter training courses through the American Red Cross.
- Consult a dietician to see how to plan and prepare nutritious meals for children with special diets.
- Invite a fire chief to talk to you and your friends about fire safety at home and while babysitting.
- Assist with a local Clover Kids group.
- Develop your own babysitting business or organize a free one-day child care service for holiday shoppers or parents during parent-teacher conferences.
- Apply to be a Junior Camp Counselor (Counselor in Training) at the Iowa 4-H Center when you are 15-18 years old.
- Attend Iowa 4-H Youth Conference and participate in workshops, listen to motivational speakers, and participate in a community service project; bring ideas back to your club and community.
- Apply to be a summer staff member at the Iowa 4-H Center after you graduate from high school.
- Interested in a college education in the area of child growth and development? Schedule a visit with Iowa State University’s College of Human Sciences and the Human Development and Family Studies Department http://www.hdfs.hs.iastate.edu/.
